Abe's Feet Never Trod Pickaway Soil

Though Abraham Lincoln never visited Pickaway County or Circleville, a few reminders of him may be found here.

There sleeps beneath the grass of Forest Cemetery, in an unmarked grave, Mrs. Ellen Dalton Tibbs Lyons, a relative of Mrs. Roberta Valentine, E. Corwin St.

Mrs. Lyons was called to Washington to nurse young Willy Lincoln, the President's favorite son, in the youngster's last illness.

M. E. Noggle, local historian, speaks of Hi Cook, proprietor of a book store on Main Street in about the year 1902. Cook was a bugler in the Union Army stationed at Washington D. C.

He was present at the President's funeral.

He later spoke before the students at Old Everts High School, recalling the events that gripped the nation's capital the night of April 14, 1865.

The connection of Circleville with the Lincoln legend may be shadowy, but February 12, the members of the Pickaway Plains Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution will join the community in homage to this great president. By unfurling flags to the breeze.

THIS WEEK celebrates the 150th anniversary of the birth of Lincoln. This strange man strode from the backwoods country of the American middle west to direct his nation through turbulent hours of "a new birth of freedom." He is admired and quoted by peoples of every nationality.

The tall, gaunt man from Illinois lives for us today, because his faith in the ultimate wisdom of the common man, his acceptance of a divine will more powerful than his own, withstood the onslaughts of his time.

The legacy of his "brave men, both living and dead, who fought here" passed successfully into his future, which has now become our present. We are now engaged in a Civil War of our own, testing, again, whether our nation can long endure. Our battlefield is the world and the enemy, the ideological "red wave of the future."

Lincoln only briefly visited Ohio but the services of Ohio sons and daughters to the Union cause were of gallant and long duration.

In 1849 and 1855, as part of his legal work, Lincoln was in Cincinnati. In 1855 his co-counsel was Edwin M. Stanton, later to become his Secretary of War. Sept. 16, 1859, he delivered a two-hour speech from the east terrace of the Statehouse in Columbus. That evening he addressed a group at City Hall, embarking the next day on a three-day speaking tour through the southwestern part of the state.

Feb. 13, 1861, the Statehouse was resplendent with gala festivity when President-elect Lincoln, with his entire family, arrived in Columbus on the way to the inauguration at Washington D. C.

A parade triumphantly carried him up High Street from Union Station to the Statehouse where he addressed a joint session of the legislature. Later he spoke to a large crowd from the west terrace, afterwards retiring to the rotunda where huge crowds crushed and jammed together to shake his hand. He couldn't know it then, but the next time he appeared in Columbus was when he lay-in-state in the same rotunda, April 30, 1865.

Local Jurists Approve "Chair"

Judge William Ammer, Pickaway County Common Pleas Court, and Judge William D. Radcliff, 4th District Court of Appeals, concurred today in the belief that the death penalty for first degree murder should be maintained in Ohio.

The judges were referring to the controversy now before the Ohio Legislature of whether or not to abolish the death penalty for first degree murder.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is the first state head to recommend personally elimination of the death penalty and has asked the Democratic-controlled Legislature to adopt an amendment to that effect.

Both local residing judges stated they believe the death penalty is a greater deterrent to committing murder than life imprisonment.

JUDGE RADCLIFF said that a condemned murderer's counsel always tries to obtain a mercy recommendation from the petit jury to get "life" instead of "the chair".

The former county common pleas judge feels the old saying, "Where there's life there's hope", always prevails upon a murderer facing death in the electric chair. Many a person condemned to life imprisonment is walking the streets today through a pardon, he declared.

Judge Ammer said he approves of the death penalty especially since crime is presently on the increase. Judge Ammer said Ohio juries, lower and high courts and past governors have "leaned over backwards" to see that justice is done.

If there is the least bit of evidence that shows premeditation was not involved in the murder, lesser penalties than death are imposed, the judge stated.

Judge Ammer said that only when juries and the court have been absolutely positive that premeditation occurred in a murder will the death penalty be imposed. "Never in the history of the state has there been any evidence, whatsoever, to show that a mistake was made in the cases of the 307 persons who have died in the electric chair," Judge Ammer said.

THE COMMON pleas judge said the Dr. Samuel Sheppard case was an excellent example of doubt in a crime. Despite the brutality of the murder, Sheppard was sentenced to second degree murder.

The death penalty is especially significant to this county, since it is the only political subdivision of the state that has ever sentenced four men to death for the murder of one person.

The case involved, was the Kidney murder trial which saw four men die in the electric chair and two sentenced to life imprisonment, by Judge J. W. Adkins.

Dickinson Named Head Of Merchants

Fifteen Circleville merchants yesterday named Hal Dickinson, Circleville Hardware, as chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce.

Dickinson then announced a meeting of all businessmen in the area for 7:30 p. m. February 24 in the Elks Home. Pierre Hale, executive director of the Retail Merchants Assn. of Ohio, will speak.

The group met at 12:30 p. m. in Benny's Restaurant, at the request of Chamber President L. D. Varble.

A new merchants group was proposed by Varble. It is to be composed of all merchants and operate with the cooperation of the Chamber, as a Chamber committee, with its own officers and program.

The group elected Paul Hang as vice chairman. Dickinson named Tom Purcell of the Circleville Herald as an advisor to the panel.

Scioto Crests At 18.96 Feet

The raging Scioto River crested at 10:30 p. m. yesterday at 18.96 feet and began to fall early this morning, reading 18.79 feet at 8 a. m.

The river, rising to flood stage for the second time in 17 days, forced the closure of several state, county and township roads.

State Road 56 west of here and Route 762 to the north were closed as was Route 104 at Dewey Park. Route 104 should be open to traffic by mid-afternoon, according to State Highway Superintendent Richard Hedges.

The only county highway closed was the Canal Road west of here. The river rose to within two to three feet of engulfing levy homes west of town on U. S. Route 22, but evacuation was unnecessary.

Probers Seek Crime Parley Information

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Labor-Management Committee hoped to pierce today the secrecy that has surrounded an alleged crime convention held at Apalachin, N.Y., in 1957.

Chief counsel Robert F. Kennedy told reporters there would be testimony linking that meeting to the committee's charges that gangsters and corrupt labor leaders have conspired to seize control of the nation's lucrative coin machine industry.

Kennedy said the testimony would come from L. James Mooney, a New York City police detective. He added that it would make the first public disclosure of anything the police have learned about matters discussed at the Apalachin gathering of 58 gangsters, racketeers and others broken up by a police raid.

Milton Green, a Brooklyn and Coney Island coin machine operator, testified Wednesday he was ambushed and beaten with steel bars seven months ago for opposing a deal between an association of operators and Teamsters Union Local 266 of New York. He said the local is run by gangsters.

Previously Charles Lichtman, secretary of Local 245 of the United Coin Machine Workers Union in New York City, had told of threats, beatings, the sale of a union contract and other happenings in the fight for control of the coin machine industry in that area.

Hoosiers Battle Flooding River

13 Counties in Grip Of Raging Wabash

PERU, Ind. (AP)—Anxious residents along the storied banks of the Wabash waited, worked and hoped today as they watched to see what the rampaging river would do next.

Hundreds of families already have fled from the swirling flood waters and hundreds more are threatened.

Gov. Harold W. Handley declared a state of emergency in 13 northern and central Indiana counties Wednesday night and telegraphed President Eisenhower asking that they be designated disaster areas.

Hardest hit was Peru, a northern Indiana city of 15,000. Nearly 1,000 families were taken from their homes here when the Wabash burst through sandbags and poured over two floodwalls at the north and south ends of town.

Soon after the floodwalls gave way, the river level began to drop slowly from its peak of 23.65 feet, a foot and a half over the floodwalls.

City officials were not sure whether the drop occurred because the crest had passed or because water was spreading out through the town.

"We can only wait and hope," said a worker.

No casualties were reported and the evacuation process went off smoothly with the help of state police, National Guardsmen and airmen from nearby Bunker Hill Air Force Base. Some city policemen worked two days and a night without rest.

The Red Cross set up 11 shelter areas but few evacuees took advantage of them.

"People here are so used to these floods that they have a standard procedure set up," explained Robert Tillet, chairman of the local Red Cross Disaster Committee. "They go straight to the homes of friends and relatives."

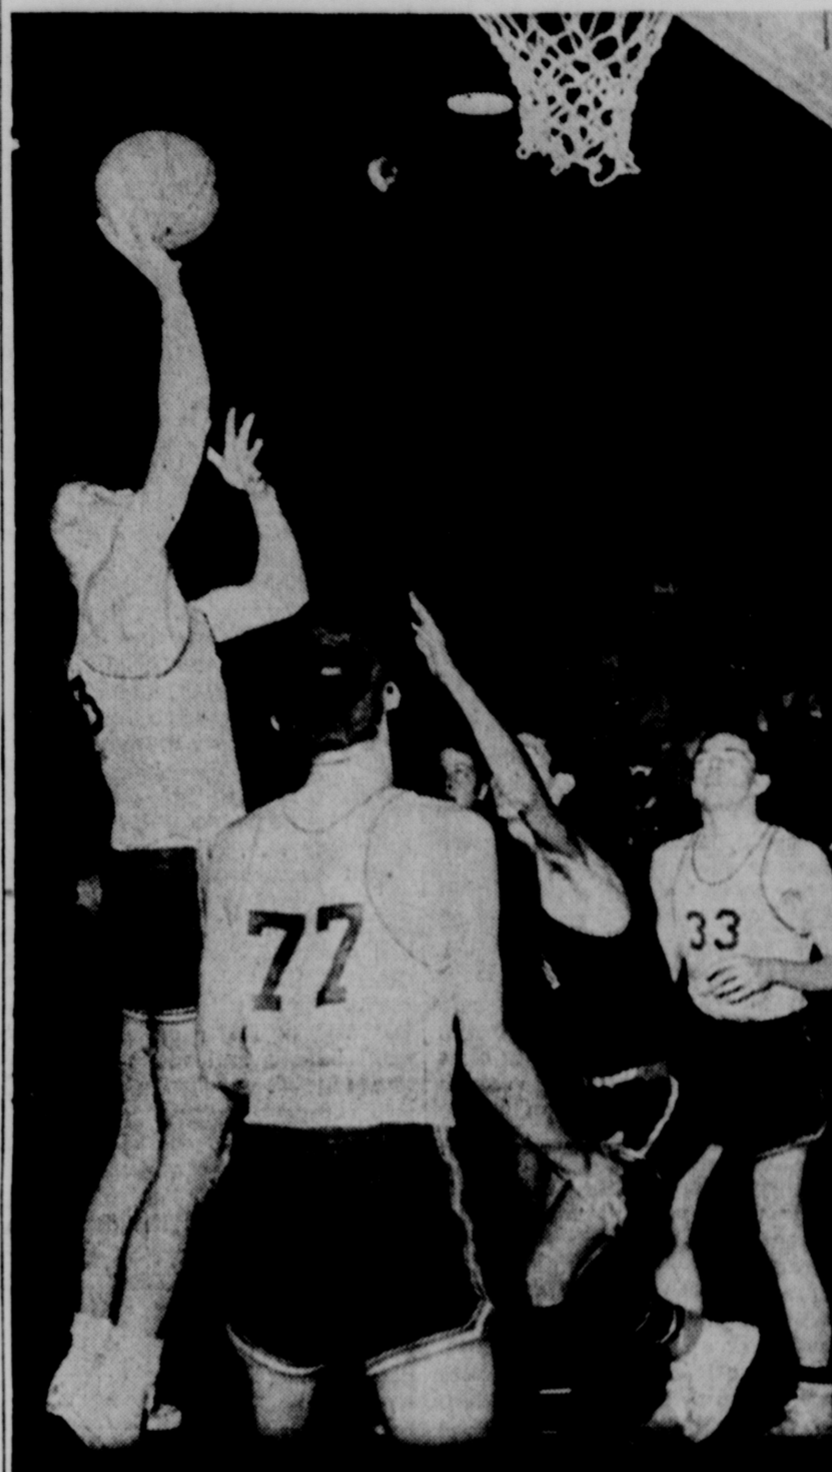

Most of the evacuation was on foot or by car and truck. Firemen in boats rescued about 50 stranded persons, including one young boy with a broken leg.

A mile-long ice jam about four miles downstream from Peru was cited as one of the major causes of the flood.

Demolition experts studied the possibility of trying to dynamite the jam, but an engineer, R. D. Walker, said he's never seen explosives take out a jam that size. Ice also was the big problem farther downstream where it was feared conditions would grow worse as jams broke up or melted.

Tigers Dump Perennial Cage Favorites in Spine-Chiller

The Pickaway County Basketball Tournament got off to a hair-raising start last night at the County Fairgrounds' Coliseum as the Walnut Tigers upset perennial tournament titlist, Ashville, 54-53, in the last 20 seconds of play.

Walnut battled back from a 10-point deficit to take a 52-51 lead with less than 30 seconds to go.

Ashville's Gary Gaines then was fouled. He dropped both free throws through the hoop to put the Broncos ahead 53-52.

Walnut's Boyd Barr became the hero as he broke loose under his own bucket and jammed two points through. He was fouled, but missed. Ashville had the ball with seven seconds left, plenty of time for a victory.

AFTER A TIME OUT, the Broncos attempted to get the ball into ace pivot man, Bobby Hoover, but the ball got loose and went out-of-bounds and Walnut took over until the whistle blew.

Pandemonium broke loose at the final buzzer as Walnut accomplished what many great ball clubs have been unable to do for years—too many to count—drop Ashville in the first game of the tourney.

Fifth-Ranked Trojans Rap Monroe 62-38 in Lid-Lifter

The battling Trojans of Darby, setting their sights on the Pickaway County Cage Tournament championship, blasted Monroe, 62-38, last night at the local Coliseum.

Ranked fifth in the state this week, the rampaging Trojans served notice that the tourney crown is their prime objective by outclassing the game Indians of Monroe, especially in the last two quarters.

In winning their 17th game in 18 starts, Coach Ned Reichelderfer's cagers stormed to a 16-11 lead as the first quarter ended and scored 20 more points in the second canto to take a 36-26 halftime count.

Banking on the strategy of wearing down their opponents, the Trojans scored 12 points in the third quarter and allowed Monroe six to take a 48-32 advantage as the period ended. The fourth chapter almost was a repeat of the third as the winners scrambled for 14 tallies while limiting the Indians to six.

BIG JOHN Drummond, Darby's stellar pivot man, again proved that he is a valuable cog in the Trojan cage machine. He reaped scoring honors for the game with 19 points and consistently cleaned both bankboards for many important rebounds.

Little Joe Ferguson Explains Lush Jobs for Son, Barber

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A published report that he hired his son as a $13,200-a-year aide brings this comment from State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson:

"There's no crime in that...If I want to employ more members of my family, I'll do it, if they can do the job."

A report in the same newspaper story that he hired a barber for $9,000-plus-a-year to supervise the state sales tax division, brings this remark:

"As I'm a great man for economy in government, I decided that maybe (his) experience as a barber made him just the type of man I needed to shave and cut the waste in state government..."

The story appeared in Wednesday's edition of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Written by legislative correspondent Ray Dorsey, the story said Ferguson's son, Thomas, of Lima, was hired as a $13,200-a-year administrative assistant.

"Newspaper owners hire their sons. Bankers hire their sons. And manufacturers hire their sons," the Democratic official said Wednesday night. "So I don't know why the Cleveland Plain Dealer is having a hemorrhage about that."

The Plain Dealer story also reported that Ferguson hired a barber, O. P. Van Shick, as sales tax division supervisor at an annual salary of more than $9,000 a year.

Ferguson said Van Shick worked for him in the state auditor's department for 16 years as chief of the pre-audit relief division. Ferguson was state auditor from 1937 to 1953.

Van Shick was back at barbering when Ferguson rehired him.

Asked to comment on the appointments, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said:

"Actually, I know nothing about it. The state treasurer is elected by the people and is not responsible to the governor. He's only responsible to the people. He's not responsible to me."

Girl's Wakethon Brings Regular Job

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—Jo Warner, 22, a determined disc jockey, slumbered in a music store window today after staying awake nine days to win a regular job.

She gave up her wakethon at 10:20 p. m. after spinning records in the music store window for 202 hours, 29 minutes and 40 seconds. The stunt was staged for Radio Station KYTE and the March of Dimes.

It won her a job at the station where her fiancée, Benny Farah, 21, is employed as an announcer. After Jo wakes up, she will collect a batch of prizes put up by local merchants.

She and Farah will be married Saturday.

Engine, 10 Cars Stay Upright

Baltimore Hospitals Say Hurts Are Minor

BALTIMORE (AP)—A Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train, speeding along about 80 miles an hour en route from Washington to New York, derailed about 10 miles east of Baltimore today.

Thirty-two persons were taken to hospitals. Two of those were released after checkups. Hospital spokesmen said none of the 30 remaining suffered more than minor injuries.

The electric engine and all 10 cars stayed upright.

A railroad spokesman said the cause of the derailment had not been established.

A Baltimore County policeman at the scene said the rails apparently spread, dropping the speeding train, the Potomac, onto the ties. But a Pennsylvania official said he doubted that railspraying was the cause.

The engine and the first seven cars rumbled and rolled up the track between the rails for several hundred yards. The last three cars broke off and stopped. None of the cars overturned.

Ties and rock ballast were tossed high and scattered down the right-of-way, blocking three of the four main line tracks.

One passenger, Henry G. Gardiner of Philadelphia, said he was in the car next to the dining car.

He said an attendant, the only other person in the car, yelled: "Hold your seat, something's going to happen."

"The car started rocking and swaying and bumping," Gardiner said, "then stuff began flying out of the pantry of the dining car ahead, going all over the place."

He was tossed to the floor of the car but said he suffered only a very minor leg bruise.

Police estimated that 300 passengers were on the train, which left Washington at 7 a. m., and Baltimore at 7:43 a. m. Its next scheduled stop was at Wilmington, Del.

Wreckage from the derailment was scattered up the track for about a mile.

Julia Nizolek, who lives in the small community of Middle River where the wreck occurred, said she was inside her home when the train derailed.

She said the house shook and "there was a lot of noise." She ran out and helped some of the injured out of the cars.

Newark Says Its Water Crisis Licked

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—Newark's water shortage eased somewhat today and prospects are bright for an early return to normal. Bursting of a waterworks dam Wednesday had placed this city of more than 35,000 in a serious predicament.

Waterworks Supt. Harvey Loy said work is progressing satisfactorily on a temporary coffer dam which stores municipal water on the north fork of the Licking River. The dam which burst was weakened by floods in January.

Loy said he hopes sufficient water will be stored by late today for the pumps to begin operating. Pressure has already been built up in the mains to 70 pounds, compared to the normal 110 pounds.

To ease residents over the shortage, water from private wells is being pumped into the mains. And as workers hurried to rebuild the dam several hundred citizens attended a meeting of City Council Wednesday night and watched councilmen reverse themselves on a city income tax proposal.

Earlier in the week the council had refused, by a vote of 6-3, to consider action on the income tax, calling for a 1/2 per cent tax for two years. Wednesday night Council voted 5-4 to present the proposal for a vote at its next session.

The tax would raise about $800,000 a year. Officials estimate that it will take about one million dollars to repair damage, including that caused by January's floods.

One passenger, Henry G. Gardiner of Philadelphia, said he was in the car next to the dining car. He said an attendant, the only other person in the car, yelled: "Hold your seat, something's going to happen."

"The car started rocking and swaying and bumping," Gardiner said, "then stuff began flying out of the pantry of the dining car ahead, going all over the place." He was tossed to the floor of the car but said he suffered only a very minor leg bruise.

Police estimated that 300 passengers were on the train, which left Washington at 7 a.m., and Baltimore at 7:43 a.m. Its next scheduled stop was at Wilmington, Del.

Wreckage from the derailment was scattered up the track for about a mile.

Julia Niziolek, who lives in the small community of Middle River, where the wreck occurred, said she was inside her home when the train derailed.

She said the house shook and "there was a lot of noise." She ran out and helped some of the injured out of the cars.

Newark Says Its Water Crisis Licked

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—Newark's water shortage eased somewhat today and prospects are bright for an early return to normal. Bursting of a waterworks dam Wednesday had placed this city of more than 35,000 in a serious predicament.

Waterworks Supt. Harvey Loy said work is progressing satisfactorily on a temporary coffer dam which stores municipal water on the north fork of the Licking River. The dam which burst was weakened by floods in January.

Loy said he hopes sufficient water will be stored by late today for the pumps to begin operating. Pressure has already been built up in the mains to 70 pounds, compared to the normal 110 pounds.

To ease residents over the shortage, water from private wells is being pumped into the mains. And as workers hurried to rebuild the dam several hundred citizens attended a meeting of City Council Wednesday night and watched councilmen reverse themselves on a city income tax proposal.

Earlier in the week the council had refused, by a vote of 6-3, to consider action on the income tax, calling for a 1/2 per cent tax for two years. Wednesday night Council voted 5-4 to present the proposal for a vote at its next session.

The tax would raise about $800,000 a year. Officials estimate that it will take about one million dollars to repair damage, including that caused by January's floods.

Long Rifle Shortened

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Daniel Boone's famed Kentucky long rifle is a short rifle now. Children swinging from the barrel of the muzzle loader on the park statue broke off a two-foot section.

Dickinson Named Head Of Merchants

Fifteen Circleville merchants yesterday named Hal Dickinson, Circleville Hardware, as chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce.

Dickinson then announced a meeting of all businessmen in the area for 7:30 p. m. February 24 in the Elks Home. Pierre Hale, executive director of the Retail Merchants Assn. of Ohio, will speak.

The group met at 12:30 p. m. in Benny's Restaurant, at the request of Chamber President L. D. Varble.

A new merchants group was proposed by Varble. It is to be composed of all merchants and operate with the cooperation of the Chamber, as a Chamber committee, with its own officers and program.

The group elected Paul Hang as vice chairman. Dickinson named Tom Purcell of the Circleville Herald as an advisor to the panel.

Scioto Crests At 18.96 Feet

The raging Scioto River crested at 10:30 p. m. yesterday at 18.96 feet and began to fall early this morning, reading 18.79 feet at 8 a. m.

The river, rising to flood stage for the second time in 17 days, forced the closure of several state, county and township roads.

State Road 56 west of here and Route 762 to the north were closed as was Route 104 at Dewey Park. Route 104 should be open to traffic by mid-afternoon, according to State Highway Superintendent Richard Hedges.

The only county highway closed was the Canal Road west of here. The river rose to within two to three feet of engulfing heavy homes west of town on U.S. Route 22, but evacuation was unnecessary.

Men's Duds Designed with Gals in Mind

KANSAS CITY (AP) — For the man who cherishes the thought that women dress to please men, a men's clothier offers this deflating thought: The industry designs men's clothes with women in mind.

L. N. Riemann of Chicago, sales manager for a nationwide clothing firm, told about 500 persons at a showing Wednesday: "Woman influences 70 per cent of man's clothing purchases. She demands the sloppiness of man."

To make certain the industry really knows what women want their husbands to buy, Riemann said his company maintains women fashion consultants.

He pointed to a new suit billed as the biggest news since the Ivy League look.

"That's the continental look," he said. "Its keynote is elegance. We're going out to please the women. That suit is designed to complement her new fashions."

The suit features peaked lapels, a fashioned waist, a cut-away front and cuffed sleeves.

98 Years Ago Today, Ohio Capital Visited by Lincoln

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—On a winter morning 98 years ago today, Columbus residents picked up their Ohio State Journal newspaper and read:

"The President-elect and suite, accompanied by the committees appointed on the part of the General Assembly and the executive, will reach Columbus about 2 o'clock p. m. today, and will proceed at once to the State Capitol in carriages."

Word spread quickly, and several thousand were on hand at the depot, where Columbus' Union Station now stands, when a lookout on the Scioto River Bridge gave the signal that the presidential train—running 10 minutes late—was coming.

Quickly, a procession formed and moved to the Statehouse, where the Ohio General Assembly waited. A reporter noted that as the President entered the crowded chamber "his great height was conspicuous even in that crowd of goodly men."

The lieutenant governor of Ohio, Robert C. Kirk, had a solemn introduction:

"Sir, on this day, and probably this very hour, the Congress of the United States will declare the verdict of the people making you their President. It is my pleasurable duty, in behalf of the people of Ohio, speaking through this General Assembly, to welcome you to their capital."

"Never in the history of this government has such fearful responsibility rested upon the chief executive of the nation as will now devolve upon you. Never since the memorable time our patriotic fathers gave existence to the American Republic, have the people looked with such intensity of feeling to the inauguration and future policy of a president, as they do to yours."

"I need not assure you that the people of Ohio have full confidence in your ability and patriotism, and will respond to you in their loyalty to the union and the Constitution. It would seem, sir, that the great problem of self-government is to be solved under your administration."

"All nations are deeply interested in its solution, and they wait with breathless anxiety to know whether this form of government which has been the admiration of the world is to be a failure or not."

"It is the earnest and united prayer of our people that the same kind Providence which protected us in our colonial struggles and has attended us thus far in our colonial struggles and has attended us thus far in our prosperity and greatness, will so imbue your mind with wisdom, that you may dispel the dark clouds that hang over our political horizon, and thereby secure the return of harmony and fraternal feeling to our distracted and unhappy country. God grant their prayer may be fully realized!"

"Again, I bid you a cordial welcome to our capital."

The President was also grave as he replied, and his speech was almost as short as his introduction. He said, in part:

"It is true, as has been said by the president of the Senate, that very great responsibility rests upon me in the position to which the votes of the American people have called me."

"I am duly sensible of that weighty responsibility. I can but know what you all know, that, without a name—perhaps without a reason why I should have a name—there has fallen upon me a task such as did not rest even upon the father of his country."

"And so feeling, I can only turn and look for those supports without which it will be impossible or me to perform that great task."

British OK Near On Cyprus Pact

Greek-Turk Agreement To End London Rule

LONDON (AP) — Britain appeared ready today to clinch an early agreement with Greece and Turkey aimed at bringing peace and independence to Cyprus.

The foreign ministers of the three nations met for 3 1/2 hours Wednesday night discussing details of an accord that would end 81 years of British rule over the East Mediterranean island.

Turkish Foreign Minister Fatin Rustu Zorlu, on emerging from the dinner with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and Greek Foreign Minister Evangelos Averoff, was asked if he expected a settlement to be reached.

"We hope so," he replied.

The three were to meet again today.

Zorlu and Averoff flew to London from Zurich immediately after their prime ministers agreed there on principles of a constitution to make the disputed British island colony a republic.

Averoff and Zorlu were pressing the British for an early meeting of all three governments—possibly attended by the three prime ministers—to seal the agreement finally. It was not known how, or at what point, the Cypriots themselves would be consulted.

No date was mentioned so far for the meeting or for an independence target. The British Parliament must ratify any settlement. The Greek and Turkish parliaments must also be consulted.

The blessings of Archbishop Makarios, exiled Greek Orthodox primate of the crown colony, strengthened the hands of the government leaders toward ending a dispute that has cost nearly 600 lives in Cyprus—142 of them British, including soldiers and civilians.

Makarios told newsmen in Athens Wednesday night the Greek-Turkish pact "lays the foundation for an immediate and final solution to the Cyprus issue considering that Cyprus will become an independent sovereign state."

The Cypriots themselves — both the Greek and Turkish communities — greeted the peace pact signed by the Athens and Ankara governments with a feeling of relief tempered by disappointment that their full aspirations were not met.

DiSalle Pledges Aid in Newark Water Crisis

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has taken prompt action to help alleviate a water shortage in Newark.

The governor conferred with city officials here Wednesday night and assured them the state will do everything it can to ease the shortage. The situation developed Wednesday after a flood-weakened waterworks dam collapsed and the city's water supply escaped through the gap.

DiSalle ordered State Highway Department auxiliary pumps in to pump water from wells and other sources into the city's water mains. He also requested the State Health Department to make certain the water supply is not contaminated.

Adj. Gen. Loren G. Windom, in charge of the state's Disaster Relief Committee, will try to clear up any legal difficulties in obtaining emergency flood relief to repair the waterworks dam and other damaged facilities.

The Ohio Civil Defense Corps has been trucking in water to help relieve the shortage.

Meanwhile, city workers have been laboring to build a coffer dam at the waterworks. It is hoped that the dam will trap enough water so that the level can reach intake pipes leading to the city's water mains.

Some 16 million gallons of water rushed through the gap when the waterworks dam collapsed, forcing schools, many smaller businesses, and some industry to close.

Mayor Fred Long said he had no immediate plans for water rationing. But he appealed to residents to conserve the available supply. Newark normally uses some 13 million gallons of water a day.

"The President-elect and suite, accompanied by the committee appointed on the part of the General Assembly and the executive, will reach Columbus about 2 o'clock p.m. today, and will proceed at once to the State Capitol in carriages."

Word spread quickly, and several thousand were on hand at the depot, where Columbus' Union Station now stands, when a lookout on the Scioto River Bridge gave the signal that the presidential train—running 10 minutes late—was coming.

Quickly, a procession formed and moved to the Statehouse, where the Ohio General Assembly waited. A reporter noted that as the President entered the crowded chamber "his great height was conspicuous even in that crowd of goodly men."

The lieutenant governor of Ohio, Robert C. Kirk, had a solemn introduction:

"Sir, on this day, and probably this very hour, the Congress of the United States will declare the verdict of the people making you their President. It is my pleasurable duty, in behalf of the people of Ohio, speaking through this General Assembly, to welcome you to their capital."

"Never in the history of this government has such fearful responsibility rested upon the chief executive of the nation as will now devolve upon you. Never since the memorable time our patriotic fathers gave existence to the American Republic, have the people looked with such intensity of feeling to the inauguration and future policy of a president, as they do to yours."

"I need not assure you that the people of Ohio have full confidence in your ability and patriotism, and will respond to you in their loyalty to the union and the Constitution. It would seem, sir, that the great problem of self-government is to be solved under your administration."

"All nations are deeply interested in its solution, and they wait with breathless anxiety to know whether this form of government which has been the admiration of the world is to be a failure or not."

"It is the earnest and united prayer of our people that the same kind Providence which protected us in our colonial struggles and has attended us thus far in our colonial struggles and has attended us thus far in our prosperity and greatness, will so imbue your mind with wisdom, that you may dispel the dark clouds that hang over our political horizon, and thereby secure the return of harmony and fraternal feeling to our distracted and unhappy country. God grant their prayer may be fully realized!"

"Again, I bid you a cordial welcome to our capital."

The President was also grave as he replied, and his speech was almost as short as his introduction. He said, in part:

"It is true, as has been said by the president of the Senate, that very great responsibility rests upon me in the position to which the votes of the American people have called me."

"I am duly sensible of that weighty responsibility. I can but know what you all know, that, without a name—perhaps without a reason why I should have a name—there has fallen upon me a task such as did not rest even upon the father of his country."

"And so feeling, I can only turn and look for those supports without which it will be impossible or me to perform that great task."

British OK Near On Cyprus Pact

Greek-Turk Agreement To End London Rule

LONDON (AP)—Britain appeared ready today to clinch an early agreement with Greece and Turkey aimed at bringing peace and independence to Cyprus.

The foreign ministers of the three nations met for 3 1/2 hours Wednesday night discussing details of an accord that would end 81 years of British rule over the East Mediterranean island.

Turkish Foreign Minister Fatih Rustu Zorlu, on emerging from the dinner with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and Greek Foreign Minister Evangelos Averoff, was asked if he expected a settlement to be reached.

"We hope so," he replied.

The three were to meet again today.

Zorlu and Averoff flew to London from Zurich immediately after their prime ministers agreed there on principles of a constitution to make the disputed British island colony a republic.

Averoff and Zorlu were pressing the British for an early meeting of all three governments—possibly attended by the three prime ministers—to seal the agreement finally. It was not known how, or at what point, the Cypriots themselves would be consulted.

No date was mentioned so far for the meeting or for an independence target. The British Parliament must ratify any settlement. The Greek and Turkish parliaments must also be consulted.

The blessings of Archbishop Makarios, exiled Greek Orthodox primate of the crown colony, strengthened the hands of the government leaders toward ending a dispute that has cost nearly 600 lives in Cyprus—142 of them British, including soldiers and civilians.

Makarios told newsmen in Athens Wednesday night the Greek-Turkish pact "lays the foundation for an immediate and final solution to the Cyprus issue considering that Cyprus will become an independent sovereign state."

The Cypriots themselves—both the Greek and Turkish communities—greeted the peace pact signed by the Athens and Ankara governments with a feeling of relief tempered by disappointment that their full aspirations were not met.

Harry James Jr. Joins Air Force

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Harry James Jr., 17, who toots a trumpet, like his dad, joined the Air Force Tuesday so he can find more time for music.

James is the son of the trumpet-playing bandleader, Harry James.

The young James was a freshman music major at North Texas State College, Denton, Tex.

"There wasn't enough time for my playing at Denton," he said.

The Air Force said he probably will be assigned to a band as a trumpeter as soon as he finishes basic at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex.

DiSalle Pledges Aid in Newark Water Crisis

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has taken prompt action to help alleviate a water shortage in Newark.

The governor conferred with city officials here Wednesday night and assured them the state will do everything it can to ease the shortage. The situation developed Wednesday after a flood-weakened waterworks dam collapsed and the city's water supply escaped through the gap.

DiSalle ordered State Highway Department auxiliary pumps in to pump water from wells and other sources into the city's water mains. He also requested the State Health Department to make certain the water supply is not contaminated.

Adj. Gen. Loren G. Windom, in charge of the state's Disaster Relief Committee, will try to clear up any legal difficulties in obtaining emergency flood relief to repair the waterworks dam and other damaged facilities.

The Ohio Civil Defense Corps has been trucking in water to help relieve the shortage.

Meanwhile, city workers have been laboring to build a coffer dam at the waterworks. It is hoped that the dam will trap enough water so that the level can reach intake pipes leading to the city's water mains.

Some 16 million gallons of water rushed through the gap when the waterworks dam collapsed, forcing schools, many smaller businesses, and some industry to close.

Mayor Fred Long said he had no immediate plans for water rationing. But he appealed to residents to conserve the available supply. Newark normally uses some 13 million gallons of water a day.

Candlelight Service Units Eloise Seitz, Jerry Bell

MR. and MRS. JERRY BELL

Before an improvised altar decorated with a basket of white carnations and gladioli and two candles, Miss Eloise Seitz became the bride of Mr. Jerry Bell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey E. Seitz, Route 2, Ashville, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marguerite Bell, Route 4.

The double ring candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wilbur Grace, pastor of the Pickaway EUB Church, in the home of the bride's parents at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, January 27.

Miss Anna Schleyer, 327 S. Schoto St., pianist, presented the pre-nuptial music.

The bride chose a winter white street length jersey dress, featuring a tailored neckline. The empire waist was accented with a bow. Her jewelry was of rhinestone.

She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and red sweet-heart roses accented with light green streamers.

Miss Florence Timmons, a friend of the bride, was the maid of honor. Her gown was of rose jersey and she carried a bouquet of white pom poms.

Mr. Charles Bell served as best man for his brother.

Mrs. Seitz chose for her daughter's wedding, a navy blue dress with black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a grey dress with black accessories and her corsage was also of white carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bridal table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a bride and groom. The cake was flanked on either side by lighted tapers.

Hostesses were Miss Ruth Allison, Ashville; Mrs. Jerry Azbell, Circleville and Mrs. Nolan Seitz, Amanda.

The new Mrs. Bell is a graduate of Walnut Twp. High School and is presently employed as secretary for Darrell Hatfield, Insurance and Real Estate.

Mr. Bell attended Walnut Twp.

Past Matrons, Past Patrons To Be Honored

Circleville Chapter No. 90, Order of the Eastern Star, met for its regular meeting Tuesday night in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Donna Foreman, worthy matron, presided over the business meeting. Announcement was made that inspection would be held April 28th. It was also announced that Circleville Chapter would be the guests of Bainbridge Chapter on Friendship Night. The next meeting, February 24th, will honor Past Matrons and Past Patrons of all Chapters. All are urged to attend.

It was announced that the Past Matron's Circle would meet at 2 p. m. Thursday, February 19th, at the home of Mrs. Carl Bennett, Route 1, Ashville.

An invitation was received to attend the reception honoring Ralph E. Davidson, Worthy Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of Ohio to be held Saturday, March 14th at the Cincinnati Masonic Temple. Madisonville Chapter No. 373 are sponsoring the reception.

White Elephant Auction Held by Circle No. 2

Circle No. 2 of the First Methodist Church met last night in the home of Mrs. Frank Marion, 217 N. Scioto St. There were 19 members present.

Devotions were given by Mrs. James Shank, using the "New Frontier" as her theme. Mrs. Dorothy Gerhardt and Mrs. C. C. Clure presented the program using the topic "Christian Work in Literacy, Literature."

Mrs. Donald V. Archer presided over the business meeting. Members were asked to donate pies for the Washington Birthday dinner to be held February 18th at the Church. The dinner is being sponsored by the Methodist Men's Club. There will be no circle meeting in March. Members were asked to attend the Lenten study at the church.

During the social hour, a white elephant auction was enjoyed with Mrs. Eli Hedges being the auctioneer.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Leiland Dunkel, Mrs. Earl Hilyard and Mrs. Robin Jones.

The April meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. R. P. Rader, Route 3.

Mrs. Orion King Hostess for Circle No. 5

Mrs. Orion King, 148 W. High St., was hostess to Circle No. 5 of First Methodist Church last night. There were 17 members present.

Miss Billie Bowers presided over the meeting. Mrs. Richard Funk was in charge of devotions using for the scripture lesson Psalm 78:1-4. She read the story of Jesus and closed her devotions with prayer.

Mrs. Arnold Moats was in charge of the program entitled "What Is Literacy and Illiteracy." "An Illiterate Friend" as a story read by Mrs. Orin Stout.

The program closed with the Lord's prayer.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. R. R. Bales, Mrs. Moat, Mrs. Clyde Cook and Mrs. Orwell Barr.

No meeting will be held in March due to the Lenten Season.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Golden, Cambridge, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Curlett, Route 1.

Mr. Wirt Whittacker and Miss Patricia McCab, both of Columbus, were Wednesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Styers Sr., 623 E. Mound St.

Miss Brenda Brown Engaged To Mr. Ted Allen Young

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos J. Brown, Route 3, announce the engagement of their daughter, Brenda to Mr.

MISS BRENDA BROWN
Ted Allen Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young, Route 1, Stoutsville.
The bride-elect is a 1958 graduate of Circleville High School.

Mrs. Stevenson Speaker for DAR

"From Martha to Mamie" will be the program presented by Mrs. H. Newell Stevenson to the Pickaway Plains Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution at its Annual Tea and Guest Day meeting.

It will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the social room of the Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Emerson Spicer and her committee will be in charge of refreshments.

The chapter will present awards for achievement and scholarship honoring several young people in the community.

The chapter still has oven-savers, pecans and kwik-kutters to sell and will accommodate anyone wishing to buy them.

Meeting Slated For Monday Club

Mrs. Kenneth Luna and Mrs. Robert Doherty will present the program to the Monday Club when it meets at 8 p. m. Monday in the trustee's room of the Memorial Hall.

"The Rise of Empire and of Arts" is the topic for the program. Mrs. Luna's subject is entitled "In Painting and in Sculpture" and Mrs. Doherty, "In Literature and in Drama."

A vocal trio, composed of Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, Mrs. Ralph Dunkel and Mrs. James Hodges, will sing "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor" from "Miss Liberty."

Give white sauce a delicate flavor boost by scalding the milk with a slice of onion or celery stalk added; remove onion or celery before adding the milk to the butter and flour mixture.

Mrs. Bower New Chairman Social Circle

The Ebenezer Social Circle met in the home of Mrs. Orin W. Dreisbach, 163 W. Mound St., yesterday afternoon.

Plans were made by the group to meet the second Wednesday of the month in interest of the Circleville Home and Hospital.

Candlelight Service Units Eloise Seitz, Jerry Bell

MR. and MRS. JERRY BELL

Before an improvised altar decorated with a basket of white carnations and gladioli and two candles with lighted white tapers, Miss Eloise Seitz became the bride of Mr. Jerry Bell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey E. Seitz, Route 2, Ashville and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marguerite Bell, Route 4.

The double ring candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wilbur Grace, pastor of the Pickaway EUB Church, in the home of the bride's parents at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, January 27.

Miss Anna Schleyer, 327 S. Scioto St., pianist, presented the pre-nuptial music.

The bride chose a winter white street length jersey dress, featuring a tailored neckline. The empire waist was accented with a bow. Her jewelry was of rhinestone.

She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and red sweetheart roses accented with light green streamers.

Miss Florence Timmons, a friend of the bride, was the maid of honor. Her gown was of rose jersey and she carried a bouquet of white pom poms.

Mr. Charles Bell served as best man for his brother.

Mrs. Seitz chose for her daughter's wedding, a navy blue dress with black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a grey dress with black accessories and her corsage was also of white carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bridal table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a bride and groom. The cake was flanked on either side by lighted tapers.

Hostesses were Miss Ruth Allison, Ashville; Mrs. Jerry Azbell, Circleville and Mrs. Nolan Seitz, Amanda.

The new Mrs. Bell is a graduate of Walnut Twp. High School and is presently employed as secretary for Darrell Hatfield, Insurance and Real Estate.

Mr. Bell attended Walnut Twp.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Add A Note to Valentine

DEAR ABBY: My Daddy is so fat it isn't even funny. He is five feet five and when he stands on our scale the needle goes to 250 pounds and stays there because that's as high as the numbers go. I think if there were more numbers it would go higher yet. Mom is scared to death that she is going to be left a widow with four children. We love our Daddy very much and want him to live a long time. Can you help us, please?

LOVES DADDY

DEAR ABBY: Your mother should make an appointment for your Daddy to see the doctor, who will examine him and put him on a diet. If your Daddy loves you (and I'm sure he does) he will keep that appointment. Clip this and stick it in your Daddy's valentine as a reminder. Good luck!

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law is a very lovely person but she doesn't understand little children. When I come to visit her with my son who is only four years old, she gives him very strict orders that he is not to touch this or that. If he happens to touch something he isn't supposed to, she puts him in a cage. She came by it when a wild hyena was shipped to her from Asia (she has written books on the Tasmanian Wolf and Mammals of Africa, India and Asia.) My son cries every time I tell him we are going to visit Gramma. Should I continue to take him there, or leave him with friends when I go?

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW

DEAR DAUGHTER: A child does not belong in a cage! If you can't discipline him well enough to keep him out of the cage, I suggest you leave him with friends, or ask Gramma to come to your house.

DEAR ABBY: This has been on my mind for a year and I am going to get it off. I had a group of relatives over to my house and we all sat around looking at some old family snapshots I had placed in an album. Shortly after they left I noticed that some of the pictures were missing. The pictures were of me and my cousins when we were little kids, also of my aunt and uncle. These pictures were priceless and everyone screamed and hollered when they saw them. I think a cousin of mine took them because the aunt and uncle (now deceased) are her parents. Should I come out and accuse her or should I snoop around her place sometime to make sure she has them before I mention it? Please help me solve this as I don't want to cause trouble.

SUSPICIOUS

DEAR SUSPICIOUS: Do NOT snoop around looking for the pictures. Tell the cousin you suspect (privately) that the temptation was understandable. Also that a reproduction can be made from any photo, and if she has your pictures to please duplicate them and return the originals.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Prison Hero Is Returned To His Cell

PITTSBURGH (AP) — While serving a 10-year prison term for bank robbery several years ago, Ralph E. Richardson volunteered for a risky medical experiment.

He and two other inmates of the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., were given injections of hepatitis virus which produces inflammation of the liver.

Two of the volunteers died. Richardson survived, but he was in a coma for weeks, developing both pneumonia and gangrene. His weight dropped from 210 to 145 pounds.

His story was told in a national magazine article. He was rewarded with a parole in 1957 after serving half of his sentence for a 1952 bank robbery at Brookville, Pa.

Last month Richardson was arrested for passing allegedly worthless checks for $85 near his home in Butler, Pa.

Judge Clyde S. Shumaker, impressed with Richardson's participation in the prison medical experiment, ordered him only to make restitution and pay court costs. But the charge was a parole violation. Richardson was ordered back to Lewisburg to complete his term.

"I figure I have 1,908 days more to serve now," said Richardson philosophically.

Savings and Loan Charters Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The new head of Ohio's Building and Loan Assns. Division, Andrew C. Putka, says he is trying to compile complete case histories on savings and loan associations and branches authorized in the closing days of the O'Neill administration.

The DiSalle administration has suggested that an unusual number of new associations and branches were approved toward the end of the outgoing administration.

Putka said he is concentrating on the files of three new associations and 12 branches authorized last November, and is checking with a representative of the state attorney general's office to determine how to proceed.

Airliners Diverted

BALTIMORE, Md. — An estimated 35 to 40 planes, carrying upward of 1,000 persons, were diverted to Friendship International Airport Tuesday night because of weather conditions in New York.

Railroads Fight Labor Demands

'Horse and Buggy Era' Work Rules Opposed

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The railroads today started an assault on rail labor work rules which they claim are "rooted in the horse and buggy era of 40 and more years ago."

Daniel Loomis, president of the Assn. of American Railroads, was the railroad's spokesman. The controversy over work rules — which management says permit "featherbedding" — could tie up the nation's rail system in a strike this autumn.

Loomis called upon leaders of train operating brotherhoods to join with railroad management in asking President Eisenhower to name a nonpartisan group to study the roads' work rules. He spoke at the annual meeting of the National Assn. of Shippers Advisory Boards.

A three-year moratorium on changes in work rules is scheduled to expire Oct. 31. This moratorium agreement was signed in 1956 by rail brotherhoods and management.

Loomis defined featherbedding as pay for work not done, for services not performed, and said it cost the industry more than 500 million dollars annually.

In Cleveland, Guy L. Brown, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said he just received Loomis' proposal and would give it serious consideration.

"For several years I have been of the opinion that many of the working rules on the railroads of the United States are, in effect, obsolete and are in need of revision," Brown said.

Brown said the matter probably would come up for discussion when the Railway Labor Executives Assn. — comprising 23 rail unions — meets next week in Miami, Fla.

Solon Lauds Composer of 'Dixie' Song

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Robert W. Levering (D-Ohio), in a House speech inserted in the Congressional Record, has paid tribute to Daniel Decatur Emmett — "Uncle Dan" Emmett, the author of "Dixie," "The Blue-tailed Fly," "Old Dan Tucker," and other musical classics.

The famed composer, a native of Mount Vernon, Ohio, died in 1904 at the age of 89. He is buried in Mount Vernon.

This spring is the 100th anniversary of the date when Emmett wrote the famed "I Wish I Was in Dixie's Land." Levering, who represents Ohio's 17th District, pointed out in his speech that "Dixie" was the first "truly American song" and unlike "America" and "The Star-Spangled Banner" and other classics, did not use music imported from England or the continent.

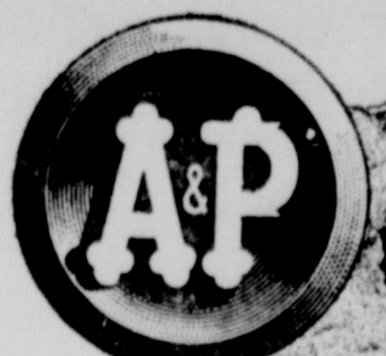

The congressman said the Kiwanis Club of Mount Vernon is planning to stage a 100th anniversary celebration in honor of composition of "Dixie."

Pinball Education Is Given to Senator

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some senators are receiving their pinball education. The Senate Labor-Management Committee probe of the pinball industry features demonstrations.

Washington attorney Rufus King removed the glass from one machine to show how it could be rigged so that the odds were 200 to 1 against winning. Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho) strode up to try. He lost.

the "back-breaker" with his deadly long set shots from out front and on the side. He wound up with 18 points for the evening.
Hoover was the Broncos big gun, notching 22 points on accurate turn-around-jumps and tip-ins. Ashville direly missed the outside scoring threat of Dick Hollenback, who was unable to play because of a tooth extraction Tuesday.
Tom Rathburn tried to take up the slack left by Hollenback, tallying 17 points from the corner. Bill Brewer followed teammate Gary Hoover in Walnut scoring with 17 points garnered from rebounds and driving across the center.
The Broncos jumped out to an 11-4 lead early in the first quarter as if to run away with the contest. But Walnut's Hoover rallied his forces with three straight long shots to pull within one point of Ashville at the first quarter mark, 17-16.

HOOVER AND Gary Gaines led the way for Ashville in this period with seven points each as both teams sizzled the nets in the latter stages of the stanza, trading bucket for bucket.
Walnut employed a 2-1-2 zone defense against Ashville the entire game. The Broncos started out with a 1-2-2 defense, from which they switched to a man-to-man in the second period for the remainder of the game.
Ashville exploded in the second quarter as Hoover and Rathburn each tallied six markers to steadily increase its margin to 10 points at halftime, 31-21.

The Tigers were stifled in this stanza as Ashville maintained control of the bankboards and rattled the Walnut offense.

Ashville continued to apply the pressure to the Tigers in the third stanza until a rash of fouling, due to its man-to-man defense, aided Walnut to come within three points of tying it up.

Ashville finished the period on top with a 43-37 lead, spearheaded by Hoover's seven points. Walnut's Bill Brewer cashed in on seven points.

THEN THE ROOF fell in as Hoover and Barr tracked up six points apiece and Brewer five for 17 points to Ashville's 10.
A total of 29 fouls were called, 15 on Ashville and 14 on the Tigers.

During the torrid first half, Ashville shot 65 per cent from the field, connecting on 13 of 20 attempts. Walnut countered with 10 of 18 tries for 56 per cent.

Walnut retained its shooting percentage during the second half to wind up with 23 of 57 from the field for 40 per cent. Ashville cooled off and completed the evening with 32 per cent, dumping 21 of 66 attempts.

From the charity line, Ashville chalked up 11 of 19 offerings for 58 per cent, compared to Walnut's eight of 17 for 47 per cent.

The Broncos, 10-8 on the year, entered the contest as a tourney favorite. Last night was just an example of the old saying, "Anything can happen at tournament time, especially in Pickaway County".

Ashville ended its year of play with 10 wins against nine losses. Walnut enters Monday's battle against 12-7 Williamsport with a 5-10 record.

of basketball, gave Drummond plenty of assistance in the scoring department by raking the nets for 17 points. The classy ball handler also served his mates as a vital playmaker throughout the evening.
Tommy Liff, the other half of the Trojan guard combination, did his share of work with 11 points and coordinated with Walters in the playmaking department.

Dave Musselman, fourth Darby cager scoring in double figures, found the mark for 10 points in addition to turning in some dependable rebounding.
Max Sheets was a mainstay for Monroe as he gave the vaunted Trojans plenty of trouble by scoring 13 points and taking more than his share of rebounds.

The Indians also were aided by the spirited play of Steve Fulek and Gary Reiterman. Fulek ended the evening with seven tallies and Reiterman had six.

AN ESTIMATED crowd of 1,700 watched Darby, smarting from last week's 70-60 loss at Scioto, pound out a lead in the first quarter on the shooting of Drummond, Musselman, Cox and company.
Monroe's attack in this period was paced by Sheets' three buckets.

In the second quarter, Walters started nitpicking to collect six quick points as did Liff. Drummond capped in with five and Musselman added three. Monroe remained a strong contender in this frame as Sheets led the way with 10 points.

Both teams slackened the pace in the third quarter, with Darby collecting 12 tallies and Monroe six. Drummond showed the way with six markers and Walters had five. Reiterman was the workhorse for Monroe as he hit for all six of the Indian points.

Again in the last stanza it was Drummond and Walters doing most of the damage with six and four points respectively.

Darby fired 78 times from the field, hitting 25 attempts for a 32 per cent average. Monroe took 54 cracks at the hoop and made 12 for a 24 per cent mark.

The winners proved adept at the foul line by making good on 12 of 18 chances. Monroe had 12 of 17 to make it a fairly even evening at the charity lane.

The win earned Darby the right to meet Jackson Monday night in the sixth game of the tournament. It will mark the first tourney contest for Jackson, owner of a 1-15 record for the season.

Unhappy 7-Foot-3 Cager Decides To Stay with Team

SPOKANE (AP)—Jean Claude (7-foot-3) Lefebvre yielded to last minute "we need you" pleas from teammates Tuesday and agreed to stay at Gonzaga University after three first stringers were kicked off the squad.
Lefebvre, tallest collegian in American basketball, withdrew from Gonzaga Monday, packed his bags, said his farewells and made reservations on a plane for his native France.
He said he was homesick, emotionally upset and had a feeling the first team rejected him because he got so much publicity and didn't score as much as people thought he should.
Four hours before plane time, things started popping as quick as the Gonzaga fast-break ever did—the offense that reduced Lefebvre from a record-breaking 50-point performance last year to the role of a lumbering reserve who averaged less than 10 a game as a substitute this year.
First, three regulars and a top reserve were called on the carpet, accused of breaking training and dropped from the team.
Then the remnants, including Frank Burgess, Gonzaga's leading scorer, marched to Lefebvre, urged him to stay and said they needed him.
To the dramatic department, it may have seemed like cornball melodrama. But to the Gonzaga athletic office, it was hectic reality and it left Coach Hank Anderson exhausted.
"What can I say," he sighed, "Jean knocked on my door and said he would stay for the good of the team if I thought he could help now that we've lost the other four boys. My wife was ready to take him to the airport. But he can certainly help and I told him so. He has re-enrolled and will start for us Sunday against Seattle University."

Denny Vermillion and Bob Turner, the co-captains, Norb Trauba and Gene Volz were dropped for the rest of the season for breaking training.

Ashville Tops New Holland

The Ashville Lumbermen edged a determined Kirk's Furniture quintet Tuesday night, 66-63, at New Holland.

The Lumbermen roared to a 15-13 first quarter lead, but fell behind at halftime, 37-27. The third period mark found Ashville trailing, 53-41.

The Lumbermen made a tremendous rally in the final quarter on the deadly shooting of Dick Hoover and fine passing and assisting of Myers.

Kirk's Jacobs led all scorers with 26 points. Hoover and Tedrow were tops for Ashville with 19 and 18 points respectively.

Ashville — Riegel 7-0-14; Myers 2-0-4; Tedrow 8-2-18; Miller 3-1-7; Ruh 2-0-4; Accord 0-0-0; Foreman 0-0-0; Hoover 9-1-19; Totals 61-46.

New Holland — Helsel 5-1-11; Jacobs 12-2-26; Stone 3-1-7; Hart 4-0-8; Monteth 5-1-11; Totals 29-5-63.

Jensen Refuses 2nd Bosox Pact

BOSTON (AP)—Jackie Jensen's refusal to accept two contract offers today was blamed on stubbornness and "the Williams things" by Bucky Harris, general manager of the Boston Red Sox.
Jensen, 1958 American League most valuable player, reportedly is seeking $40,000.
Though the Red Sox never announce salary figures, Jensen made approximately $27,500 last season. He has mailed back unsigned contracts estimated at $32,500 and $35,000.
Sluggish Ted Williams, Jensen's outfield mate, is ticketed for upwards of $125,000 for the second straight season.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:

Better Health Through Knowledge

Note to readers: Thanks for all the nice letters. As many questions as possible will be answered in this column, but for obvious reasons replies must be brief.

Q. "Could you discuss sleeping sickness? Will look for answer in Medical Mirror."—Mrs. M.

A. Sleeping sickness (epidemic encephalitis) is as it occurs in North America, is caused by a brain-damaging virus of which there are at least three varieties—"St. Louis" (because it was first recognized there), "Eastern" and "Western." There is evidence to indicate that the virus is spread by wild birds. Mosquitoes pass the virus from bird to bird and probably from bird to man and certain large animals. Persons stricken with sleeping sickness have fever, severe headache and a general feeling of sickness. They may be very nauseated and out of their head. The delirious state lasts a few days in most cases but in some it may drag on for weeks. Science has not yet found a sure cure for sleeping sickness. Mosquito control seems to be the only way to prevent or check outbreaks of the disease.

Q. If the wife needs a blood transfusion is it wise to use the husband as the donor?

A. This is a matter for the physician to decide. There is probably no blanket rule to follow. Generally, a husband-to-wife transfusion would be considered provided they are of the same blood type. This need not mean that the husband's blood matches the wife's blood exactly since more than 30 different blood factors have been identified. Blood is usually classified according to "type." Special tests are performed to find out whether the husband's and wife's blood match as to Rh factor.

Answers do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease is the function of the patient's personal physician. Questions directed to Science Editors, P.O. Box 396, Madison Sq. Sta., N. Y. 10, N. Y. will be incorporated in these columns when possible.

the "back-breaker" with his deadly long set shots from out front and on the side. He wound up with 18 points for the evening.
Hoover was the Broncos big gun, notching 22 points on accurate turn-around-jumps and tip-ins. Ashville direly missed the outside scoring threat of Dick Hollenback, who was unable to play because of a tooth extraction Tuesday.
Tom Rathburn tried to take up the slack left by Hollenback, tallying 17 points from the corner. Bill Brewer followed teammate Gary Hoover in Walnut scoring with 17 points garnered from rebounds and driving across the center.
The Broncos jumped out to an 11-4 lead early in the first quarter as if to run away with the contest. But Walnut's Hoover rallied his forces with three straight long shots to pull within one point of Ashville at the first quarter mark, 17-16.

HOOVER AND Gary Gaines led the way for Ashville in this period with seven points each as both teams sizzled the nets in the latter stages of the stanza, trading bucket for bucket.

Walnut employed a 2-1-2 zone defense against Ashville the entire game. The Broncos started out with a 1-2-2 defense, from which they switched to a man-to-man in the second period for the remainder of the game.

Ashville exploded in the second quarter as Hoover and Rathburn each tallied six markers to steadily increase its margin to 10 points at halftime, 31-21.

Th Tigers were stifled in this canto as Ashville maintained control of the backboards and rattled the Walnut offense.

Ashville continued to apply the pressure to the Tigers in the third stanza until a rash of fouling, due to its man-to-man defense, aided Walnut to come within three points of tying it up.

Ashville finished the period on top with a 43-37 lead, spearheaded by Hoover's seven points. Walnut's Bill Brewer cashed in on seven points.

THEN THE ROOF fell in as Hoover and Barr tracked up six points apiece and Brewer five for 17 points to Ashville's 10.

A total of 29 fouls were called, 15 on Ashville and 14 on the Tigers.

During the torrid first half, Ashville shot 65 per cent from the field, connecting on 13 of 20 attempts. Walnut countered with 10 of 18 tries for 56 per cent.

Walnut retained its shooting percentage during the second half to wind up with 23 of 37 from the field for 60 per cent. Ashville cooled off and completed the evening with 32 per cent, dumping 21 of 66 attempts.

From the charity line, Ashville chalked up 11 of 19 offerings for 58 per cent, compared to Walnut's eight of 17 for 47 per cent.

The Broncos, 10-8 on the year, entered the contest as a tourney favorite. Last night was just an example of the old saying, "Anything can happen at tournament time, especially in Pickaway County."

Ashville ended its year of play with 10 wins against nine losses. Walnut enters Monday's battle against 12-7 Williamsport with a 5-10 record.

Two Tourney Games Listed Here Friday

The Pickaway County cage tournament, already reaching fever pitch after last night's two opening games, will resume action Friday night with two contests on schedule.

Taking the spotlight will be Atlanta vs Scioto and Salt Creek vs Pickaway. The Red Raiders of Atlanta will take a 6-11 record into the tourney against the Buffaloes.

Scioto stands 13-3 for the season and earned co-championship of the Pickaway County League, along with Darby.

Salt Creek, paced by county scoring leader Gary Valentine, will move into the tourney with an 8-6 record. The Pirates of Pickaway will counter with a 6-11 mark.

The Atlanta-Scioto battle is scheduled to start at 7:30 p. m., with the Salt Creek-Pickaway duel set for 9 p. m.

Persons stricken with sleeping sickness have fever, severe headache and a general feeling of sickness. They may be very nauseated and out of their head. The delicious state lasts a few days in most cases but in some it may drag on for weeks. Science has not yet found a sure cure for sleeping sickness. Mosquito control seems to be the only way to prevent or check outbreaks of the disease.
Q. If the wife needs a blood transfusion is it wise to use the husband as the donor?
A. This is a matter for the physician to decide. There is probably no blanket rule to follow. Generally, a husband-to-wife transfusion would be considered provided they are of the same blood type. This need not mean that the husband's blood matches the wife's blood exactly since more than 30 different blood factors have been identified. Blood is usually classified according to "type." Special tests are performed to find out whether the husband's and wife's blood match as to Rh factor.
Answers do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease is the function of the patient's personal physician. Questions directed to Science Editors, P.O. Box 396, Madison Sq. Sta., N. Y. 10, N. Y. will be incorporated in these columns when possible.

Unhappy 7-Foot-3 Cager Decides To Stay with Team

SPOKANE (AP)—Jean Claude (7-foot-3) Lefebvre yielded to last minute "we need you" pleas from teammates Tuesday and agreed to stay at Gonzaga University after three first stringers were kicked off the squad.

Lefebvre, tallest collegian in American basketball, withdrew from Gonzaga Monday, packed his bags, said his farewells and made reservations on a plane for his native France.

He said he was homesick, emotionally upset and had a feeling the first team rejected him because he got so much publicity and didn't score as much as people thought he should.

Four hours before plane time, things started popping as quick as the Gonzaga fast-break ever did—the offense that reduced Lefebvre from a record-breaking 50-point performance last year to the role of a lumbering reserve who averaged less than 10 a game as a substitute this year.

First, three regulars and a top reserve were called on the carpet, accused of breaking training and dropped from the team.

Then the remnants, including Frank Burgess, Gonzaga's leading scorer, marched to Lefebvre, urged him to stay and said they needed him.

To the dramatic department, it may have seemed like cornball melodrama. But to the Gonzaga athletic office, it was hectic reality and it left Coach Hank Anderson exhausted.

"What can I say," he sighed, "Jean knocked on my door and said he would stay for the good of the team if I thought he could help now that we've lost the other four boys. My wife was ready to take him to the airport. But he can certainly help and I told him so. He has re-enrolled and will start for us Sunday against Seattle University."

Denny Vermillion and Bob Turner, the co-captains, Norb Trauba and Gene Volz were dropped for the rest of the season for breaking training.

CHS Matmen Eye District

Circleville's wrestling squad is busy this week making preparations for the district tournament which will be held Friday and Saturday at Ohio State University.

The Tiger grapplers ended regular season competition Saturday with a 28-16 decision over Groveport. Participating in wrestling for the first time, the locals posted a 3-3 overall record.

The state finals are slated February 20-21 at Ohio State. Matmen earning first and second places in the district will be eligible for the finals.

Jensen Refuses 2nd Bosox Pact

BOSTON (AP)—Jackie Jensen's refusal to accept two contract offers today was blamed on stubbornness and "the Williams things" by Bucky Harris, general manager of the Boston Red Sox.

Jensen, 1958 American League most valuable player, reportedly is seeking $40,000.

Though the Red Sox never announce salary figures, Jensen made approximately $27,500 last season. He has mailed back unsigned contracts estimated at $32,500 and $35,000.

Sluggler Ted Williams, Jensen's outfield mate, is ticketed for upwards of $125,000 for the second straight season.

Flood Chases Fremont Man Second Time

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Richard Bunn hasn't been home—not really home—for three weeks.

In this way Bunn is representative of hundreds of other people in Fremont and all over Ohio.

Since 3 a.m. Jan. 22 when his son answered the telephone and passed on the word that the Sandusky River was rising over its banks, Bunn has been in his house only briefly—to wash down the walls and to see what had to be done to make the place livable again.

"I was going to start putting furniture in Tuesday," Bunn said. Tuesday, the Sandusky River swept high out of its banks again, and Bunn, with more than 1,000 other residents, once again was separated from his home by water.

He thinks he might be able to get into the house again in possibly two weeks.

But his wife is in a hospital, where she was taken three days after the January floods, suffering from bronchial pneumonia. His two adult sons, who had lived with him, are staying at the home of friends near Fremont.

Bunn himself, like many other flood victims, is staying with relatives in Fremont. He goes to the Red Cross center at St. Paul's Episcopal Church for his meals. He guesses it would cost $2,000 or $3,000 to put his place back in the condition it was in before the first flood. The loss is not insured.

The 50-year-old Bunn had bought his home and a house behind it on the same property less than two years ago. He went deep into debt and was renting the house behind.

"I painted," he said, "and put in 10 evergreens and a lawn. It was the nicest lawn on the street."

"I don't know how we can ever make it look like it was."

World Prayer Day Set at Calvary

The church women of Circleville in cooperation with the Pickaway County Ministerial Assn. invites the residents of the community to attend the World Day of Prayer Service, which will be held at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

The women of Calvary Church will lead the service. Mrs. Manley Carothers is the president.

Christians around the world will join in prayer for the "healing of the nations". While this service is conducted by the women, every one, both men and women are invited to attend.

Services Slated At St. Joseph's

Stations of the Cross will be held by St. Joseph's Catholic Church at 2:30-7:30 p. m. Friday.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Triduum will be observed for the prosequed church in China. Services will be held at 7:30 p. m. each day.

All members are to go to church on Sunday to receive communion.

Bids on 3 New Clinton Air Base Units Asked

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Bids on a contract for three new buildings at the Clinton County Air Force Base near Wilmington, Ohio, were asked Wednesday by the Huntington District U. S. Engineers. The bids, covering an operations building, an industrial building and a warehouse, will be opened about March 18.

Debbie's Divorce Hearing Delayed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Trial of actress Debbie Reynolds' divorce suit against singer Eddie Fisher has been postponed two days to Feb. 19.

Attorney Frank B. Belcher, representing Miss Reynolds, asked the delay because of a conflict in his work schedule.

Miss Reynolds charges Fisher with cruelty. In interviews she has blamed actress Elizabeth Taylor for the breakup of her marriage.

A financial settlement agreed on two weeks ago has not been signed. Belcher said further postponement of the case may become necessary if the pact is not executed soon.

Civil Service Exam Set To Replace Sanitarian

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—A civil service examination will be held to select a successor to Richard F. Freuler, who has resigned as chief sanitation officer of the Alliance Health Department, effective Feb. 2. He said Wednesday night he will take a job with the health department at Hamilton, Ohio, March 2.

Flood Chases Fremont Man Second Time

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Richard Bunn hasn't been home—not really home—for three weeks.

In this way Bunn is representative of hundreds of other people in Fremont and all over Ohio.

Since 3 a.m. Jan. 22 when his son answered the telephone and passed on the word that the Sandusky River was rising over its banks, Bunn has been in his house only briefly—to wash down the walls and to see what had to be done to make the place liveable again.

"I was going to start putting furniture in Tuesday," Bunn said. Tuesday, the Sandusky River swept high out of its banks again, and Bunn, with more than 1,000 other residents, once again was separated from his home by water.

He thinks he might be able to get into the house again in possibly two weeks.

But his wife is in a hospital, where she was taken three days after the January floods, suffering from bronchial pneumonia. His two adult sons, who had lived with him, are staying at the home of friends near Fremont.

Bunn himself, like many other flood victims, is staying with relatives in Fremont. He goes to the Red Cross center at St. Paul's Episcopal Church for his meals. He guesses it would cost $2,000 or $3,000 to put his place back in the condition it was in before the first flood. The loss is not insured.

The 50-year-old Bunn had bought his home and a house behind it on the same property less than two years ago. He went deep into debt and was renting the house behind.

"I painted," he said, "and put in 10 evergreens and a lawn. It was the nicest lawn on the street." "I don't know how we can ever make it look like it was."

Bids on 3 New Clinton Air Base Units Asked

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Bids on a contract for three new buildings at the Clinton County Air Force Base near Wilmington, Ohio, were asked Wednesday by the Huntington District U. S. Engineers. The bids, covering an operations building, an industrial building and a warehouse, will be opened about March 18.

Debbie's Divorce Hearing Delayed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Trial of actress Debbie Reynolds' divorce suit against singer Eddie Fisher has been postponed two days to Feb. 19.

Attorney Frank B. Belcher, representing Miss Reynolds, asked the delay because of a conflict in his work schedule.

Miss Reynolds charges Fisher with cruelty. In interviews she has blamed actress Elizabeth Taylor for the breakup of her marriage.

A financial settlement agreed on two weeks ago has not been signed. Belcher said further postponement of the case may become necessary if the pact is not executed soon.

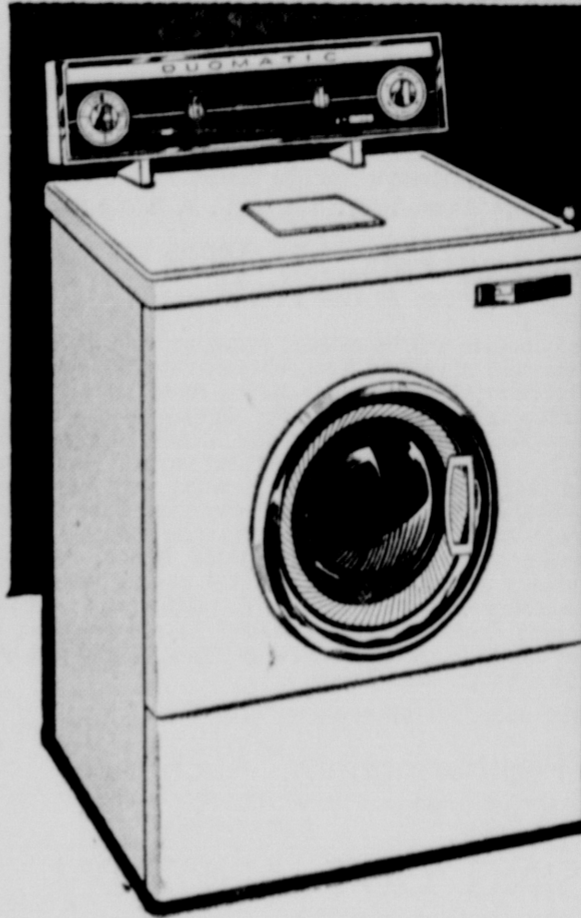

Civil Service Exam Set To Replace Sanitarian

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—A civil service examination will be held to select a successor to Richard F. Freuler, who has resigned as chief sanitation officer of the Alliance Health Department, effective Feb. 2. He said Wednesday night he will take a job with the health department at Hamilton, Ohio, March 2.
